NORTH PLAINS WELCOMES PORTLAND VISITORS

Completion of First Link of United Railways Through Lake to Dunn is Celebrated by Business Men of Two Cities.

The people of Dunn, a city of 1,000, and North Plains, 20 miles south, are to celebrate the opening of the line to Dunn with a big event on Saturday. The train which left Portland at 9:20 a.m. is expected to arrive at North Plains at 10:50 a.m., and at Dunn at 11:30 a.m. The train will bring to Dunn a delegation of 200 men and women from Portland, including such prominent business men as Mr. D. W. Kellogg, Mr. W. E. Kellogg, and Mr. A. E. Kellogg.

The ladies of Dunn have planned a special event to greet the visitors from Portland. They have prepared a special luncheon at the Dunn Hotel, and have arranged for music and entertainment. The ladies have also prepared a special gift for Mr. Kellogg, consisting of a gold watch and chain.

The people of Dunn are excited about the opening of the line to Portland. They believe it will bring new business and prosperity to the town.
